

JOB BRIEF

Class Actions and Dispute Resolution

Job Description

We've been briefed on a new Class Actions and Dispute Resolution role at Herbert Smith Freehills Kramer.

Position: 2+ years' legal experience

Details: Herbert Smith Freehills Kramer is looking for a Solicitor to join its Class Actions and Dispute Resolution team in Melbourne. You will work closely with partners Damian Grave and Matthew Eglezos, as well as colleagues across the local, national and global group, on work for national and international clients. This will include class action matters and commercial litigation, including commercial and corporate disputes and contentious regulatory investigations and enforcement matters. You will handle files, identify issues and proactively provide solutions. The ideal candidate will hold an Australian or New Zealand practising certificate and have demonstrable experience advising on commercial litigation or class actions matters from a top tier, national or international private practice, or an in-house environment.
